

Jeremy Aluma and AJT Officials:

Hope you and yours are well.

Yesterday and suddenly, I was asked to make time for a prospective role as a literary fellow for a theatre. Daily tasks will preoccupy my free time that would have been used for animation and sound engineering. I retracting EINSTEIN IN AN ELEVATOR.

I apologize for the inconvenience that this may have caused. Opportunity happens when you least expect it.

My hope remains to raise the profiles of the Jewish vocalists that I've worked with and been around. Do consider them in the future:

Rina Lubit

Daniel Sakamoto-Wengel

Beau Solley

A musical writer that I had encouraged to turn in work for this conference (especially Einstein-related) is William Barnett. I vouch for him and hope we'll work together on a musical piece next time.

As for the request of an opera singer, I'll keep your network in mind when I am out doing something musical.

Looking forward to attending another virtual AJT gathering, maybe something led by Husband again!

Clear skies,

David
